CONVENTION STAY LAW.

HEAD'RS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, S. C., April 2, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 57.

The Ordinance of the Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, convened in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," entitled "An Ordinance respecting the jurisdiction of the courts of this State," which was ratified in said Convention on the 17th day of March, 1868, and which is herewith published, is hereby approved, and will have the force of law in said State until the question of the ratification or rejection of the Constitution framed by said Convention, by the people of said State, shall have been determined by an election held in the manner prescribed by law, and, in the event of the rejection thereof, for the further period of thirty days: Provided, that the terms of said Ordinance shall not be held to apply to or conflict with any agricultural or labor lien guaranteed by any law of said State, enacted subsequently to the organization of the provisional government of said State under the President's proclamation of the 29th of April, 1865, or by any military orders from these Headquarters, now in force. And provided further, that all proceedings in any court of North Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investments of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the State of North Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the government of the United States, shall, as now ordered, be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation.—And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the Ordinance herewith published, shall be held to bar or hinder any legal proceedings in behalf of any minor heir, female, or insane person, respecting trust estate, property or interests in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, commissioners, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

By command of B't Maj. Gen. Ed. R. S. CANBY:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aid-de Camp,
Act'g Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THIS STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That Sections 1 and 2 of the Ordinance of the Convention, adopted June 23, 1866, entitled "An Ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein," be and are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Be it further ordained, That Section 3 of the above entitled Ordinance be amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 3. That all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit and account now pending in the Superior Courts, shall be continued to Spring Term 1869, and that the several Superior Courts at the Spring Term thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all such cases of action, except where jurisdiction has been or shall be given to a Justice of the Peace by the Constitution or laws of North Carolina. Should the defendant at the Spring Term of 1869, on writs which shall be returned to that Term or in any suit, for the above causes of action then pending in the Superior Court, pay or confess judgment to the plaintiff for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest,) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the said debt or demand and costs, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one half of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, that the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Court shall order a jury at the same or some subsequent term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon paying or confessing judgment for one fifth of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury finds him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, that should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment: Provided, further, that by consent of the plaintiff the defendant may at any time confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim; that all executions and judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, which have been or shall be issued on judgments heretofore obtained before any magistrate, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale. At the expiration of twelve months from such return, execution on all such judgments shall issue for only one tenth of the amount then due; at the expiration of twelve months from that time, for one fifth of the residue; and at the expiration of twelve months more, one half of the residue; and at the expiration of twelve months more, for the balance of the debt.

SECTION 5. Be it further ordained, That Section 17 of the above entitled ordinance be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 17. That the provisions of this Ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted or penalties incurred since the first day of May, A. D., 1865, or which may hereafter be contracted or incurred, except actions founded on any bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or any other instrument of writing or parol promise made since first May, 1865, in renewal of or substitute for a contract made prior to first of May, 1865, to the full amount of the principal and interest of a debt existing prior to said day, and without other consideration than such pre-existent debt, and except also actions, suits or process to revive, continue or enforce any judgment heretofore recovered upon any such bond, promissory note, bill of exchange or other instrument of writing or parol promise, as is heretofore mentioned.

SECTION 6. Be it further ordained, That this Ordinance shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this seventeenth day of March, A. D., 1868.

President Constitutional Convention.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. [illegible] It makes a [illegible] In order, however, that our Readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interest of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources and to[illegible] general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. In the first of all, we advise our friends not to determine exactly what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property or him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy, "[illegible] words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or events, may be liable to the claims of the [illegible] up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notice in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after one year from March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors whatever pay, to the [illegible] of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

THE STATE ELECTION.

Proofs of irregularity, deception and wilful fraud, in the conduct of the late election, are constantly coming in from every quarter. The character of these irregularities is various, indicating every conceivable effort to defeat the Conservatives.

This determination to act fraudulently exhibited itself on the threshold, when the first registration began, in the readiness with which young negroes were admitted to registration, without adopting any systematic and reliable method of ascertaining definitely their true ages. We have heard the opinion expressed, and it is a reasonable one, that thousands of negro boys under 21 years of age have been permitted to register in the State. This opinion is rendered certain by the fact, that if there were 72,000 colored men in the State, prior to the last registration, there must have been 144,000 white men over the age of 21 in the State. But this latter statement is contradicted by all the statistical information ever prepared in the State, either before or since the war. But if you add 4,000 more blacks in the last registration to those of the previous registration, then, at the late election, there must have been 76,000 negro men 21 years age, which would give us 152,000 white voters in the State. Now who can believe that this estimate for either white or black voters is correct? The very idea that there are 228,000 men, twenty one years of age, out of a population of perhaps less than a million of both races, is preposterous. The conclusion, therefore, is, that the registration of 76,000 colored men, 21 years of age in this State, is the result of fraud, and contradicts all experience and all the statistical information in our possession.

Moreover, the times, places and circumstances of registration, particularly in the last instance, were very unfavorable to the obtaining a fair registration. The places of registration were so distant, in the last instance, that many white men were unwilling to travel the distance to effect it. Five days were allowed for registration, and when the time closed, while some of the Registrars very properly decided to admit no others to registration after that time, other Registrars continued, singly and alone, to register the names of all who presented themselves. At many places, registration was continued after the election commenced.

Besides this, many persons are believed to have voted more than once, but most generally under feigned names. There is no doubt in the minds of many gentlemen, that the plan of Gen. Canby, allowing voters at all points to vote upon their own affidavits, was a most fruitful source of fraud. In this city, it is generally believed that many persons who were permitted to vote, on affidavit, voted fraudulently.

THE FRAUDS.

While we were thinking of the wholesale frauds that have been committed in the late election, and especially in this County, and despairing of being able "to do justice to the subject," we picked up the New Orleans Crescent, of the morning after the day of the election in that city, which contains the following, which meets the case and we adopt it bodily:

The infamous carpet-baggers excelled themselves in infamy yesterday. Frauds have heretofore been perpetrated at elections; and attempts upon the purity of the ballot box have not been unfamiliar in our past political history; but those who have resorted to these expedients have, usually, preserved some show of decent respect for public opinion. But the carpet baggers did not try to hide their rascality beneath even a thin veil of concealment. They organized in the face of the public, and partially consummated a gigantic scheme of swindling, by which they hoped to usurpate the will of legal voters. So audacious, indecent and flagrant a conspiracy to carry an election by open and unblushing fraud was never before seen in this country, and we trust that it may never be seen again. The law of Congress, permitting non-residents to vote on a residence of ten days, was designed to place an engine of fraud in the hands of the "trooly loil" scalawags, and the patriotic creatures made full use of this invaluable privilege. They imported hundreds of negroes from the surrounding parishes, issued to them affidavits of ten days' residence, and, armed with these precious documents, crowds of ignorant ragged plantation negroes were marched to the polls by the shameless carpet-baggers, who had organized this villainy, and forced to vote the ticket. Such a sight was a sad commentary on the times on which we are fallen, and on the character of the persons who have the insolence to aspire to rule the people of the State. We trust that some means may be adopted to punish the persons who have been guilty of this gross outrage.

THE RESULT.

At the time of writing this paragraph, we have seen nothing to shake our opinion that the people of North Carolina have repudiated the infamous Constitution. We await further returns, (which come in but slowly,) with profound interest.

A VETERAN CONSERVATIVE.—Mr. Joseph Wheeler, of Wake county, aged 70 years, walked fifteen miles, on Thursday, to vote against the Mongrel Constitution.

THE LEGISLATURE.—We will publish, as soon as we can ascertain them, the names of the members elect to the Legislature.

NOW AND THEN.

At the late annual banquet of the State Rights Society of the city of New York, held on the return of the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, Hon. Thomas H. Seymour, of Connecticut, made a spirited speech, in the course of which he said:

"In those days when the Southern country was in no danger from Great Britian, but when the North was selected by the British ministry and the king for the first exercise of his tyranny, then Jefferson and the men of his day in Virginia made the cause of Massachusetts and Rhode Island the cause of the entire South, and came to the rescue of the North, (cries of "Yes, that's so,") reversing the condition of things at the present time. And now tell me what is the duty of the people of the North towards the south, and what is the fact? What has brought this great change about? In the year 1773, in the midst of that dead calm, Jefferson, Dabney, R. H. Lee, Francis Lee and Patrick Henry got together in the old Raleigh tavern in Williamsburg, Va., and there inaugurated the celebrated committee of correspondence with the legislatures of the different colonies, which, under Providence, led to the first colonial Congress in British America, [applause,] and this produced that first germ of independence which freed us from the British yoke, and gave us that admirable bill of rights and that constitution which is now menaced by the monarchists in Congress who are endeavoring to destroy all that was bequathed to us by our conscript fathers."—(Applause.)

The historical truth of the above cannot hardly be questioned. We must admire the sympathy expressed by the people of the South, and of the liberal contributions in provisions and otherwise, made to Boston in its distress in various parts of Virginia, Maryland and other portions of the South, we happen to have evidence before us in an old volume of an English newspaper, Lloyd's Evening Post, published in 1774, and which contains letters from America, giving accounts of the substantial relief extended to Boston in her calamity by those who surrendered the safety which they might easily have purchased for themselves, to relieve and rescue that section which is now called upon to crush out of the South the last spark of liberty, and to reduce them to a lower condition than the slaves whom the king of Old England and the slave traders of New England brought to their shores.—Baltimore Sun.

THE FINAL VOTE ON IMPEACHMENT.—The Washington Union, of Tuesday evening, makes the following speculation on the final vote in the impeachment trial. It says:

"There are forty-two Senators classed as Republicans. It will be necessary to secure thirty-six of these in order to convict. If, in other words, seven Republican Senators do not think that the evidence justifies a vote against the President, he will not be convicted. It is sufficient for us to state that we do not believe the Republican votes will be solid in favor of conviction.

We fix upon no Senator who will vote no or yea. That we have no right to do. But there are other means of judging of this matter, and they are satisfactory to us."

Per contra, the Springfield Republican makes the following shameless confession:

"Many of the reports and dispatches from Washington throw doubt upon the result of the Senate's vote on the conviction of the President. But our private advices sustain the judgment we have all along expressed, that conviction is inevitable, and will follow not so much from a feeling of the President's technical guilt or innocence on this or that charge, as from the feeling that it is a necessity of the political condition of the country, and earned by its victim by his interference with the legislative branch of the government and his trifling with the public peace. We are assured that no more than three Republican Senators are likely, under any circumstances, to vote for the President. These are Grimes, of Iowa; Van Winkle, of West Virginia, and Fowler, of Tennessee. The withdrawal of these from the Republican vote against the President still leaves it several in excess of the number necessary to a conviction. The present week will undoubtedly witness the conclusion of the whole matter—the deposal of one President and the institution of another in his place."

REV. WADE ALREADY BESET BY OFFICE SEEKERS—CANDIDATES FOR HIS CABINET.—Anticipating the success of impeachment, considerable wire-pulling is going on in the way of securing Cabinet appointments under the prospective administration. It is understood that Senator Conness, of California, whose Senatorial term expires next March, and in whose place a successor has already been appointed, is making exertions to secure the Secretaryship of the Department of the Interior.—In this aspiration it is mentioned that he is not alone, but that he is closely pursued by General Thayer, Senator from Nebraska. The contest has grown quite animated, and both parties are said to be sanguine of success. Ben. Wade, who looks at matters with a recognition of that very practical teaching of philosophy, "never count your chickens before they are hatched," keeps aloof from these contests, and, it is said, refuses to recognize any claims or to make any promises until he sees himself in a condition to shower his patronage upon the most deserving of his supporters. The imperturbable part enacted by "Old Ben" received with great dissatisfaction by office seekers, who continually harass him. Old Ben says it will be time enough to talk of offices when there are any to dispose of.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

EXCITEMENT AS TO THE VOTE OF THE SENATE ON THE PRESIDENT'S CASE.—There is a good deal of excitement to night respecting the probable vote on the impeachment articles. Most people here appear to be of the opinion that conviction is now certain, though no new reason is urged for the belief. A legion of radical missionaries are here talking loudly about the political necessity, the enormity of President Johnson's crimes, the punishment in store for traitorous Senators who dare to vote for acquittal, and everything else calculated to stiffen the vertebral column of impeachment. Their antics are enough to disgust men with any independence of spirit or sense of justice. It is hard if they do not effect more harm for their cause than good.—N. Y. World, 22nd.

CHERRYVILLE.—The greatest change in any community was effected at this box in Gaston county, by Jas. W. Duncan, Esq., of Charlotte. On Tuesday he addressed the voters after they had assembled to vote, and so great an effect had his powerful argument that all voted the Conservative ticket but three. Before his speech the box was Radical by a large majority. Mr. D. is a gentleman of education, of enlarged views and of great argumentative powers, and his speeches, wherever made, did a vast deal of good. He is one of our most effective speakers, and we hope to have the benefit of his talents in the approaching Presidential election.—Charlotte Times.

THE PROPOSED FOURTEENTH CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT—RESOLUTIONS OF THE NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.—We publish below the resolutions adopted by the Legislature of New Jersey in reference to the action of the House of Representatives, on the presentation of the joint resolutions withdrawing the consent of New Jersey to the proposed fourteenth constitutional amendment:

WHEREAS a communication has been received from the Hon. Charles Haight, one of the representatives from this State in the House of Representatives, stating that he had presented to that body Joint Resolution No. 1, as requested by the Legislature of New Jersey, and that they had been returned to him by the Speaker of the said House of Representatives before the reading of the same was concluded, under the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the resolutions of the Legislature of New Jersey, purposing to withdraw 'the assent of the said State to the constitutional amendment, known as the fourteenth article,' be returned by the Speaker of the House to the gentleman who presented it, for the reason that the same is disreputable to the House and scandalous in character, and that its title only shall be referred to in the Journal and in the Congressional Globe."

Be it resolved by the Senate (the House of Assembly concurring.) That the return of the joint resolutions of the Legislature withdrawing the assent of this State to the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, entitled article fourteen, to the representative who presented the same, by virtue of the resolution of the House to that effect, and the passage of the said resolution pronouncing the joint resolutions of New Jersey "disrespectful to the House and scandalous in character," when only a portion of the paper had been read, was a violation of the natural and constitutional rights of the people of this State, oppressive, arrogant, and imperious.

That the manner in which the said joint resolutions were received demonstrates the wholesome truths contained in them. It confirms the statement that "the origin and objects of the said proposed amendment were unseemly and unjust; that the necessary result of its adoption must be the disturbance of the harmony, if not the destruction, of our system of government;" that the objects of Congress were to absorb to itself executive, judicial, and legislative power necessary to secure to itself immunity for the unconstitutional acts it has already committed, and those it had since inflicted on a too patient people.

Resolved, That if it be true, as stated by the House of Representatives, that the joint resolutions sent to them by this Legislature were "disrespectful to the House and scandalous in character," they were only disrespectful to the House inasmuch as they recited its acts, and scandalous only because they recited the scandalous proceedings of Congress.

Resolved, That the order made "that the title of the resolution should only be referred to in the Journal and Congressional Globe," after a portion of the resolution had been read, made the record untruthful and unfaithful. It recorded not what transpired, but what the prevailing faction desired to be recorded. It was an effort to close the ears of the people at large, as they had closed their own, to a fair and constitutional statement of grievances—to a recital of their own actings and doings—by diminishing the record, and making it only a partial witness of their proceedings.

Resolved, That the statement made by the mover of the resolution on the floor of the House of Representatives, that it was done "as a rebuke to a disloyal Legislature," should have been sufficient to have prevented any representative from this State from voting for said resolution. That we, on the part of the Legislature of New Jersey and all the people of the State, deny the truth of the statement that the Legislature is disloyal, or ever has been, but pointing proudly to the record for the evidence of our past devotion to the Government of our fathers and constitutional liberty, we solemnly appeal to the people of this State to maintain unabridged the sacred rights of freedom of speech and petition, so grossly violated by the action of the House on the presentation of these resolutions; and to that end we call on them so to speak at the polls, that the House of Representatives will be obliged to hear, be they never so unwilling, and so to record the protest of New Jersey against the unconstitutional acts of the present Congress, that no resolve of the House of Representatives can mar the record.

OUR REPRESENTATIVES.—Who is bold enough to deny that new light has broken upon the 19th. century, and that this is an age of progress and advancement in all the elements of moral and intellectual greatness? Old Warren, so long and justly honored for its social refinement and intelligence, represented in the Legislature of North Carolina (if we should be so unfortunate as to have a Legislature) by three mulattoes, totally ignorant, and utterly incompetent for any position whatever. The seats of Macon, Edwards and Eaton filled by Hyman, Cawthorn and Die Falkner. It would be laughable, if it were not such a serious matter.

Shall this state of affairs continue!—Shall this monstrous iniquity be forced upon an honest and intelligent people?—We answer no! Even if the Constitution is ratified, there is a remedy for the evil and we will apply it. The remedy is a peaceable one. We counsel no improper measures. We can manage the whole matter peaceably and lawfully. We can do it despite Congress or Scallawags. The issue is made. We know the argument and we will use it. We regret that we have been placed in our present condition by designing men, who care nothing for the poor negro but to get his vote, but regrets will not remedy the evil; other measures must be resorted to. We sympathise with the colored people and wish them well. We are willing to treat them justly, but we cannot consent to be ruled by them.—Warrenton Courier.

WHAT IS FREEDOM?—On Wednesday, when the train stopped at Adam's Run, on the Savannah & Charleston Railroad, the attention of an old negro was attracted by some United States soldiers having in charge a negro who was handcuffed. Approaching the guard he inquired, "Wuffer dis nigger be handcuffed?" "For stealing a hog," replied the guard. At this he became highly incensed, and exclaimed, "Ki! ki! hancuff a freeman for steal hog? Like to know wha' dis country comin to—wha' da freedom? Hancuff free man for steal hog, or for steal cow! Wha' da freedom, like to know?"—Charleston Mercury.

A RADICAL VIEW OF IMPEACHMENT.—The Washington Chronicle thus expresses itself concerning the final result of impechment:

"The articles will be voted on separately in open court, and the general result will be in nowise affected by a failure to sustain any single article, the sustaining of any single article being equally as effective as though all were sustained. It is believed that the question of conviction or acquittal will be finally decided by the middle of next week."

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTIONS!

WAKE COUNTY.

We subjoin such returns as have reached us from this county. We only give the vote for and against the Constitution, but will, at some future time, give the vote for individuals:

	For	Against
Raleigh	1,506	702
Sorrell's	104	30
Morrisville	69	126
Forestville	127	113
Oak Grove	179	142
Hays'	89	84
Green Level	78	52
Spikes'	103	39
Nat Jones'	53	129
Laws'	86	106
Eagle Rock	170	55
Rolesville	235	88
Auburn	124	206
Dunnesville	106	111
Lashley's	127	91
J. Jones'	72	58
B. Jones'	109	182

All of the precincts heard from but Wakefield, whether there will be, probably, a stand off. The Radical majority in the county is about 950.

JOHNSTON.

The following returns have reached us:

	For	Against
Clayton	144	85

WAYNE.

We are indebted to our cotemporary of the Goldsborough Rough Notes for the following telegram:

GOLDSBORO, April 24.

Wayne county, official, gives 213 majority for the Constitution.

CARTERET.

Three times three for glorious old Carteret! A justly enthusiastic friend in Beaufort sends us the following special telegram:

BEAUFORT, April 24.

Carteret redeemed!
Congleton defeated!!
Constitution defeated!!!
Glory Hallelujah!

CABARRUS.

A friend in Concord sends us the following special telegram:

CONCORD, April 24.

Cabarrus has gone Conservative by 300 majority.

GRANVILLE.

The following returns have reached us:

Kittrell's—Against the Constitution 56; For 137.

Sandy Fork—Against Constitution 197; For 80.

Henderson—Against Constitution 205; For 445.

WARREN.

Haw Tree—Against Constitution 100; For 150.

Smith's Creek—Against Constitution 49; For 161.

DAVIDSON.

We have received nothing, ourselves, from this county. We hear the rumor that Lexington has gone for the Constitution by about 300 majority, and that at 'Possomtown, another precinct in the county, the Radical vote was cast for Goodloe, for Governor.

GUILFORD.

The rumored vote at Greensboro and High Point is Radical. We have but little fears of Guilford, however.

REPORTED MAJORITIES.

It is reported, by telegraph, that the following counties have gone against the infamous Constitution by the majorities named, in round numbers: Lincoln 200, Cleaveland 800, Gaston 250, Iredell 1,000, Mecklenburg 300, Orange 500, Alamance 300, Cumberland 200, Catawba 800.

ROWAN.

The official majority against the Constitution is 477.

DAVIE.

The majority against the Constitution in this county is 250, (approximate.)

SAMPSON.

The majority against the Constitution in this county is said to reach 600.

NORTHAMPTON.

We have returns from only one precinct—a negro stronghold:

Gaston—For Constitution 191, all negroes; against Constitution 36, all whites.

HARNETT.

This County goes against the Constitution by something less than 100,—a large gain for the Conservatives.

THE VOTE IN THIS CITY.

We give, elsewhere, the vote in this city on the Constitution.

Holden received the same vote that the Constitution did (1,506.) Mr. Ashe received 680 and Mr. Goodloe 10.

For Sheriff, Tim Lee received 1,480 and David Lewis, Esq., 719.

For Congress, Deweese received 1,496, and Mr. Williams 697.

THE SIXTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The Hon. Nat. Boyden has undoubtedly beaten "Daddy Kowles" for Congress out of his boots. Poor Daddy!

THE NEW YORK World mentions an instance where a party offered $5,000 down to obtain a Tobacco Inspectorship in North Carolina.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Henry Myrover Stedman, a promising youth about fourteen years of age, son of Nathan A. Stedman, Esq., was drowned near Fayetteville, on Saturday last. The Wilmington Star furnishes the following account of the melancholy occurrence:

"It appears that the deceased and Stephen Worth, a little son of Joseph A. Worth, Esq., went on a fishing excursion to "Robinson's Pond," a locality well known to the old residents of Fayetteville. Finding an old boat near the dam, they imprudently seated themselves in it and started up the pond. In a short time the boat commenced filling rapidly, when the boys attempted to reach the bank. When very near it young Stedman reached out his arm, and having seized the branch of an overhanging tree, was in the act of drawing the boat to the shore, when the frail craft capsized and the two youths were soon struggling in the water. Henry Stedman soon sank to rise no more, but Stephen Worth was rescued after remaining in the water some six minutes; and though he was apparently dead when taken out, he soon gave evidences of returning animation and is now nearly recovered.

The body of young Stedman was not recovered until Sunday morning; and on the afternoon of that day it was laid beside the dust of his kindred in the last resting-place of Fayetteville's honored dead."

CRIME AT WILMINGTON.—The Journal, a few days since, published a long list of names, with crimes or offences specified, of persons committed to jail within four months. It says:

"It will be observed that of these, 17 were whites and 53 colored, making a total number of 70. There were 60 males and 10 females. In the enumeration of offences it will be seen that 56 of the 70 were charged with larceny—an offence now so common in our midst."

From the Petersburg Index.

OLD REBEL SAYINGS.

The Constitution, which at any time exists until changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people, is sacredly obligatory upon all.—George Washington.

I have repeatedly laid myself under the most serious obligations to support the Constitution. I have acquired an habitual attachment to it and veneration for it.
John Adams.

The preservation of the General Government, in its whole constitutional vigor, is the sheet anchor of our peace at home and safety abroad. Thomas Jefferson.

To hold the Union of the States as the basis of their peace and happiness; to support the Constitution, which is the cement of the Union, as well in its limitations as in its authoritica. James Madison.

By what means shall we contribute most to cement the Union and give the greatest support to our most excellent Constitution? James Monroe.

In unfolding to my countrymen the principles by which I shall be governed in the fulfilment of those duties, my first resort will be to that Constitution which I shall swear, to the best of my ability, to preserve, protect and defend. John Quincy Adams.

The Constitution is a sacred instrument, which should be guarded with sleepless vigilance. Andrew Jackson.

A telegram from Little Rock, Arkansas, says that enormous frauds in the election by the Radical registrars continue to be discovered in all parts of the State; and from the fact that the Tribune, Philadelphia Press, and other extreme Radical sheets have been declaring for days past that the Arkansas Constitution was "carried," there seems no room for doubt that the Northern Radicals were fully prepared for, if not parties to, these gross frauds in Arkansas. As there is, however, no official report of the acceptance of the Constitution, and as even the military authorities refuse to recognize the so called Legislature at Little Rock, these stupendous swindles in Arkansas, so far from effecting the object intended, are only a warning that like, or worse, Radical frauds will be attempted in other Southern States where elections are now in progress.—N. Y. Herald.

NEGROES VOTING THE CONSERVATIVE TICKET.—From reliable sources, we learn that large numbers of the negroes in Columbus, Sampson, Onslow and Wayne, voted the Conservative ticket. Appreciating the fact that their interests are indissolubly connected with those of the white men, their former masters, and still kindly disposed friends, these negroes have acted with reason.—Wil. Journal.

AMONG the gentlemen who have endeared themselves to the Conservatives by their zeal and labor in the cause, we add the names of Drs. J. M. Davidson, S. Herron, Capt. James Tiddy, J. H. Orr, J. A. Wadsworth, J. Means Jr., W. W. Pegram, H. M. Asher, and many others.

Nobly have our friends worked—and, thank God, they have not worked in vain.—Char. Times.

Albert C. Green, author of 'Old Grimes,' was engaged several years before his death upon a humorous poem, into which it was his purpose to weave every genuine Yankee phrase that he could gather. It grew year by year, waxing to a handsome epic, and is soon to be published.

All our interior exchanges are poetical and eloquent in describing the beautiful appearance of the country at this season. Ole Bull, in telling of his first sight of a prairie, said—"all wide, beautiful—grass so fine my horse kick up, and birds sing so sweet, I kick up, too!"

One hundred and fifty thousand Englishmen in India govern and fleece 200,000,000 Hindoos.

An Illinoisian has, within the last two years, married four wives and buried three of them.

The public lands in Alaska are said to extend to 365,000,000 of acres. Many of these acres are preserved in ice.

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION.

[We condense below, without embodying them in distinct telegrams, all the returns from the State received last night:]

REPORTED CONSERVATIVE MAJORITIES.

Catawba	1,200
Iredell	850
Duplin	487 (official)
Caldwell	200
Alexander	300
Stanly	200
Mecklenburg	271 (official)
Orange	500 to 650
Carteret	56
Columbus	373 (official)

Burke and McDowell go Radical by a very small majority.

Franklin (on the North side of Tar River) gives 85 majority only for the Radicals.

Halifax, complete, 1650 Radical majority.

Edgecombe reported Radical by about 1200—a Conservative gain.

The Radicals claim a majority of 300 in Lenoir, 150 in Greene, and 1,000 in Craven.

Apropos to this Craven telegram, a private dispatch to the Editors has the following, which is obscure:

"In Craven, Radicals two to one—a cheat of one thousand." Does this mean ballot-stuffing, or that the majority is but 900,—or what?

Jones (official) Radical majority 148

Bladen and Robeson gone Radical by small majorities.

Richmond doubtful, with chances rather in favor of the Radicals.

Brunswick Conservative by a small majority.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 24, P. M.

Just before the Senate adjourned, the President's Secretary arrived with a number of messages. Immediately after the adjournment, an excited crowd gathered around the messages, which were opened amid intense excitement, showing that the President's actions are still regarded as of some moment.

The President withdrew the nomination of Ewing and nominated Gen. Schofield as Secretary of War, vice Stanton, removed.

All the members of the Cabinet were present to-day.

Nelson spoke all day in the impeachment Court. He kept the Senators and galleries well seated and interested throughout, the attention becoming closer as the effort drew to a close. The points were well taken and in some cases startling.

Groesback speaks to-morrow. The end will not be reached under two weeks.

A pointed part of Nelson's speech implicates four of the Managers in the Alta Vela affair, which interrupted the relations between the President and Judge Black.

GEORGIA ELECTIONS.

AUGUSTA, April 24, P. M.

It will be several days before the result is officially known.

It is believed that the radicals have carried this District, electing Prince to Congress, and giving a majority for the Constitution and Bullock.

The Democrats claim five out of seven Congressmen, and a majority of the Legislature.

The Republicans are confident of Bullock's election, and the Democrats are also confident of Gordon's election. But all this is conjecture. The official count will show a close vote.

A negro man, bayoneted by a soldier in the row yesterday, was buried this afternoon.

SAVANNAH, April 24, P. M.

The general opinion is that the Conservatives are ahead in the city by a large majority.

Orders were received, to-day, by the Commander of the Post, from Gen. Meade, to notify the Daily Advertiser (Radical) to cease its incendiary and inflammatory articles, or it will be suppressed.

THE ELECTION IN VIRGINIA—A HITCH.

RICHMOND, April 24, P. M.

Gen. Schofield issued an order this morning, that Congress, having made no appropriation to defray the expenses of the election in Virginia for the ratification or rejection of the Constitution, the election will not take place on the 2nd, of June, unless Congress should make an appropriation before that time. If the election does not take place on that day, Congress will doubtless substitute a later day, of which due notice will be given.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1868.

MY BLESSING.

I lay my hand upon the head,
And bow my own above, and plead
A tear or two thereon, instead
Of love's caressing;
A kiss hath not so tender touch;
Smiles say of kindness ne'er so much;
What is the import, then, of such
A heart full blessing?

Not a light wish of loving mood
To compass only worldly good,
My heart would not be understood
In want so shallow;
Not what is termed a life of ease,
Perpetual sunshine, changeless peace,
Nor, whatsoe'er the charm, a bliss
Heaven doth not hallow.

I bless thee with a quiet mind,
Obedient, steadfast, and resigned,
That seems in trifling things to find
Its fullest measure;
I bless thee with a generous heart,
That will not shrink from care or smart,
So to enlarge or to impart
Its choicest treasure.

I bless—oh, friend, forgive the strain,
Since loss is often richest gain,
And joy is sweetest after pain,
Thy life with sorrow;
Some clouded days some nights of tears,
Some sacrifices, conflicts, fears,
Showers where the bow of hope appears
For God's to-morrow,

I bless thee with a work to do,
A holy purpose to pursue,
A faith to keep and to renew
By love and duty;
With strength to climb a toilsome hill,
With patience for thy father's will
Or the stern strokes that polish still
The gem to beauty.

I bless thee with a constant ray
Far down the future's doubtful day,
And heaven-lights all along the way
For guide and warning;
And when earth's sun shall sink to-night,
I bless thee with the promise bright,
"At evening time it shall be light,"
And heaven at morning.

I bless thee thus in wish and prayer,
Content if thou the portion share
Thy father sees thee fit to bear;
And so confessing,
To Him would I commend thy youth,
Thy life and love, sorrow, joy and truth—
All to all perfect Love; in sooth
This is my blessing.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for each instrumente, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determ ned to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.
